Art Unit: 1631

Amendment filed 03/12/2004 is acknowledged. Claims 5,13,16,18, are canceled. Claims 1,2,6,9,10,17 are amended. Claims 1-4, 6-12,14,15,17,19-22 are pending. Claims 9-15 remain withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to a non-elected groups. The restriction requirement was made final in the previous Office action.

Rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs, are withdrawn in view of amendments to the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103.

Claims 1-4,6-8,17,19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Veeraraghavan et al., 1999 or Veeraraghavan et al., 1998 or Hajduk et al. The rejection is maintained for the reasons of record applied to claims 1-8, 17-22 and further in view of the following.

Applicant amended claims to read on particular strain of human papillomavirus E2 virus, HPV-18 strain, and argues that none of prior art references teach or suggest this particular strain. It would be obvious, however, to apply the well known method steps of using chemical shifts determined by NMR for identifying binding sites in proteins - exemplified in the rejection for the instance of papillomavirus E2 protein domains - for determining of binding site(s) of any particular papillomavirus E2 protein of interest.

As for the information listed in Table 1, Examiner maintains that it is nonfunctional descriptive material which does not distinguish the invention from the prior art.

Conclusion.

This action is a final rejection and is intended to close the prosecution of this application. Applicant's reply under 37 CFR 1.113 to this action is limited either to an appeal to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences or to an amendment complying with the requirements set forth below.

If applicant should desire to appeal any rejection made by the examiner, a Notice of Appeal must be filed within the period for reply identifying the rejected claim or claims appealed. If applicant should desire to file an amendment, entry of a proposed amendment after final rejection cannot be made as a matter of right unless it merely cancels claims or complies with a formal requirement made earlier. Amendments touching the merits of the application which otherwise might not be proper may be admitted upon a showing a good and sufficient reasons why they are necessary and why they were not presented earlier.

A reply under 37 CFR 1.113 to a final rejection must include the appeal from, or cancellation of, each rejected claim. The filing of an amendment after final rejection, whether or not it is entered, does not stop the running of the statutory period for reply to the final rejection unless the examiner holds the claims to be in condition for allowance. Accordingly, if a Notice of Appeal has not been filed properly within the period for reply, or any extension of this period obtained under either 37 CFR 1.136(a) or (b), the application will become abandoned.
